ABSTRACT

Utami, Icuk Putri.2032. Discourse Analysis of Enviromental Values in Tere Liye's 'Si Anak Spesial'. undergraduate program Nurul Jadid University. Advisor (I) Dr. Tirmidi, M.Pd., Advisor (II) Bradhiansyah Tri Suryanto, M.Pd.

Key word: Discourse Analysis, Novel, Environmental values

Teaching English using literary works, especially using novels has proven to be effective in increasing students' enthusiasm for learning English. To understand the contents of the novel, competence is needed to carry out discourse analysis. This study aims to describe the discourse presented in Tere Liye's novel The Special Child 'Si Anak Spesial' through Psycholinguistic and Sociolinguistic Approaches. The results of the study show that, through the stories, the discourse of environmental values are depicted in the novel. The environmental values described in this study are how each individual has the character of caring for the environment which includes instilling, growing, and preserving the environment. Meanwhile, the value of caring for the social environment such as social solidarity is also reflected in the novel Si Anak Spesial.
