ABSTRACT

Rizky Ayu Amalia, Andi. 2023. Analysis Of English Learning By Snowball Method To Improve Vocabulary Mastery at Nurul Jadid Islamic Junior High School. Undergraduate English Education Program, Social and Humanity Faculty, Nurul Jadid University. Advisor (I) Abdullah Al Anis, M. Pd., Advisor (II) Mohammad Sofyan Adi Pranata, S. Pd, M. Li.

Keywords: Vocabulary Mastery, Word Wall Media, Classroom Action Research.

Vocabulary mastery is a person's competence to convey his ideas and capture the desired meaning of everything that other people say. Snowball method is a learning method using paper shaped like a ball containing questions made by students from learning material that has been studied. The object of this research is students of class VII Tahfidz 2 of Nurul Jadid Islamic Junior High School, totaling 26 students. This study aims to find out the improvement the snowball method vocabulary mastery in English learning at Nurul Jadid Islamic Junior High School. This study used the Classroom Action Research (CAR) method by Kemmis and MC. Taggart which has four stages, namely; planning, action, observation, and reflection. The findings of this study were declared successful with 1 cycle, because at the first cycle stage the students' scores had increased from the pre-test to the post-test results. The data was computed by IBM SPSS Statistics 25. The average student pre-test score was 62 and the average post-test score was 86.3. In addition, the observation results also showed a big change from students who were initially passive to active during learning. So it can be concluded that this snowball method absolutely improve students' vocabulary mastery.
