The purpose of study was to know the emotional role of students in completing thesis and to find out what factors trigger students positive and negative emotional. This study used qualitative descriptive the research instrument observation and interview, after that this study found that the factors causing the emergency of students emotion, consist of two factors, namely human and non human factors. The human factors can be related to the academic context (losses and class meet) and also the family context while the non human factors is the time and place for consultation, exams, and also research to support students writing.

Based on explanation above it can be concluded that this research provides and overall picture of the emotional challenges faced by students during the process of writing thesis and provided important inside on how to overcome this problem. It this hoped that the result of this research can be come a basis for developing programs and strategies that are more effective in helping students overcome negative emotions and complete their thesis better in the future.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First, alhamdulillahirabbil'alamin, praise and gratitude for the presence of Allah SWT who has given grace and guidance to the writer so that the writer can complete the thesis which is one of the requirements in completing the S1 study. Salawat and greetings are still bestowed on the great Prophet Muhammad SAW who has become a guide in the life of mankind.

Second, I would like to thank my parents who always give the spirit of struggle in the process to be better, and also indirectly provide support in the form of moral and material in completing this thesis.

Third, thank you very much to my supervisor, who has given enthusiasm, courage and criticism of my thesis. Without you I could not finish my thesis on time. I am sure, I will not do anything without your supervision and guidance in working on my thesis.

I also do not forget to express my gratitude to all my English lecturers at the Department of English Education who have provided a lot of knowledge and valuable lessons so far, as well as my friends who have helped me in writing my thesis, both morally motivated and material motivation. With humble demands, I thank you profusely. Although there are still many shortcomings that must be corrected in this thesis. Therefore, all forms of constructive criticism and suggestions will always be welcome and it is hoped that in the future it can help in writing the next thesis to make it even better. The author hopes that this thesis can be a useful reference for future researchers.
